

Dear brothers and sisters,

Alleluia! He is Risen! Indeed, he is Risen, Alleluia! Today is resurrection Sunday, the day we Christians celebrate the victory of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ over death once and for all, victory of light over darkness, victory of life over death. That is a great reason to be exhilarating joyful, hopefully not just for today but throughout our life.

On behalf of the entire St. Ann's clergy and staff, I would like to wish you and your loves ones a joyous Easter 2024 and may the Risen Christ fill you with wisdom, peace and joy!

May your joy be contagious!

Fr. Quesnel Delvard,
